Social Studies

Students will prepare for their first social studies test on Friday. Their study guide is due Tuesday.

Science

Students will continue learning about the properties of matter.

Language

In writing this week, students will draft/revise/edit/publish their procedural text. In grammar, students will review common and proper nouns, as well as singular and plural nouns.

Reading

We will begin Theme 4: What is Sound?, which focuses on determining importance. Our word study will focus on proper nouns. The target skill for this week is understanding poetry and the use of alliteration.

Math

Students will continue chapter 2 this week. We will learn about exponents and order of operations.
